

Pre: Song & Dance

Class Description

This class will include elements of creative movement and pre-ballet as well as incorporating simplified songs for students to engage in while moving. The aim is to include a vocal component as a natural way for children to express themselves while gaining verbal control, using rhythm and joyfulness as guides. The class is not meant as a formalized vocal approach to singing; instead it is simply to merge our natural ability to accompany song with movement as a healthy expression.
